FREE Home Brewing Workshops Sunday, February 7

LIMITED ENROLLMENT

Beginner Class: 12pm to 2 pm

Intermediate Class: 3pm to 5 pm

Organic Brewing Roundtable Discussion: 2pm to 3 pm

Beginner Class: 12:00 noon to 2 pm: This workshop is geared towards people who plan to start brewing their own beer at home and would like to have some hands on training from experienced home brewers. Basic homebrewing practices with an eye towards organic, environmentally friendly techniques will be covered. A real batch of beer will be brewed during the workshop. Participants are encouraged to sign up in advance because the group size will be limited to 20 people.

Intermediate Class: 3:00 pm to 5 pm: This class is perfect for folks who have already started brewing their own beer at home but would like to improve their skills and knowledge and have some hands on training from experienced home brewers. Intermediate homebrewing practices with an eye towards organic, environmentally friendly techniques will be covered. A real batch of beer will be brewed during the workshop. Participants are encouraged to sign up in advance because the group size will be limited to 20 people.

Organic Brewing Roundtable Discussion: 2pm to 3 pm: Especially for folks curious about the environmental impacts of beer brewing, this Roundtable will cover aspects of both craft brewing and homebrewing. Discussion will include tips on how homebrewers and beer drinkers can make choices that help the environment and support local and regional breweries and suppliers. Group size will be limited to 20 people.

Both workshops will be in an outdoor unheated setting. If it rains a canopy will be in place but it may limit the number of people the workshop can accommodate.

Seven Bridges Cooperative was founded to supply the best organic brewing ingredients in the world to brewers. Our retail store and mail order catalog have been open for business in Santa Cruz, California since 1997. Our mission is to make a wide selection of quality organic brewing ingredients available to home brewers. All of our organic ingredients are certified organic under the USDA national organic program.
